today announced that Honduras will host the 2017 CONCACAF Futsal Club Championship, scheduled for August 21- 26, 2017.

The invitational tournament, featuring eight of the region's top FUTSAL clubs representing eight different CONCACAF Member Associations, will be played in its entirety at the Universidad Pedagógica Nacional Francisco Morazán in Tegucigalpa, Honduras.

The eight clubs include three representatives from North America, Sporting Outlaws FC (CAN), Sidekicks (MEX) and Elite Futsal (USA). Teams from Central America are Grupo Line Futsal (CRC), Soyapango FC (SLV) and Universidad Pedagógica Nacional (HON), and the Caribbean region representatives are Habana (CUB) and FAX Futsal (GLP).

The official draw will take place at 12:00 PM ET, on Friday, July 21, at CONCACAF Headquarters in Miami Beach, FL, dividing the participating teams into two groups of four team each.

The inaugural edition of the CONCACAF Futsal Club Championship was played in 2014, in Guatemala City, Guatemala. Guatemala's Glucosoral was crowned champion, besting Costa Rica's Borussia in penalty kicks by a score of 5-4. Mexico's Sidekicks and Cuba's Habana will each make their second appearance in the Futsal Club Championship this year.
